SVBR Member News - December 2016

President's Message

Dear SVBR Members,

The holidays are upon us, as is the snow. Time to buckle down for winter and to go over our 2016 accomplishments while setting new goals for the year ahead.

This past year was one of the busiest for SVBR in terms of sales volume since the peak of the market 10 years ago. A great sign of things to come! Many towns and price points have seen a decline in inventory and surge in sales, and we must do our part to help push forward that trajectory. Connect with old prospects, send your mailings, and get excited for good things ahead.

In that vein, it is once again time to gather the troops and enjoy some festive fun. We hope to see you all at the SVBR Holiday Luncheon this Thursday, December 15 at 11:30am at the Last Chair in Dover VT. It will be a scrumptious family style menu with a concise agenda of important board announcements, new Realtor inductions, member recognitions, q&a, and an amazing raffle to benefit The Realtor Political Action Committee, which includes a high end real estate photography drone, gift certificates to numerous area restaurants, gift baskets, and more. A great cause with great prizes, so we hope that everyone brings their checkbooks!

Realtor.com to Launch New Dashboard

In a bid to build on its momentum in the competitive online listing space, realtor.com® has announced updates that include a revamped listing display and new tools for brokers and agents to manage their business. Consumers will find larger, more prominent listing photos on the site and new “quick connect” options to contact real estate agents. The move is designed to facilitate faster and more intuitive connections between agents and prospects.
